

WHAT IS THE MAIN ROLE OF OUR MEMBERS?

The members' main role is to actively participate in and support the organisation, contributing to its objectives and success. This involves attending meetings, engaging in discussions, and volunteering for activities. Members play a critical role in shaping the direction of the organisation through their input and involvement. Their role requires commitment, collaboration, and a willingness to support the organisation's mission.

What are the main responsibilities?

- Attending regular meetings and the Annual General Meeting.
- Participating in discussions and decision-making processes.
- Voting on key issues and decisions impacting the organisation.
- Volunteering for roles, tasks, and activities as needed.
- Supporting the implementation of the organisation's projects and initiatives.
- Adhering to the organisation's constitution and regulations.
- Providing feedback and suggestions to improve the organisation's functioning.
- Promoting the organisation and its activities within the community.
- Ensuring respectful and inclusive interactions among all members.
- Keeping informed about the organisation's activities, goals, and challenges.

What do Members need to do?

- Be committed to attending meetings and participating actively.
- Be willing to contribute time and effort to support the organisation's activities.
- Be open to sharing ideas and feedback in a constructive manner.
- Be respectful and inclusive in all interactions with fellow members.
- Be proactive in staying informed about the organisation's affairs.
- Be ready to volunteer for tasks and roles as needed.
- Be supportive of the organisation's mission and objectives.

Members of Black Foxes UK are responsible for a range of participatory tasks. These include attending regular meetings and the Annual General Meeting, participating in discussions, and voting on key issues. Members must also volunteer for activities and support the implementation of the organisation's projects and initiatives.

Members play a key role in shaping the direction of the organisation through their active involvement and feedback. They help promote the organisation within the community and ensure that interactions are respectful and inclusive. Their commitment and collaboration are essential for the organisation's success and adherence to its constitution.